

ANCHORING TO THE CROSS

6 Hours One Friday, Max Lucado
Matthew 28:1-7, p. 1549

My Failures are Not Fatal – Part I
My Life is Not Futile – Part II
My Death is Not Final – Part III

The angel said to the women, “Do not be afraid, for I know that you are looking for Jesus, who was crucified. He is not here; He is risen, just as He said. Matthew 28:5

...Jesus said, “It is finished.” With that, He bowed His head and gave up His spirit. John 19:30 finish – to bring to an _____; to complete or _____

What did Christ’s “finished work” do for us?

1. His sacrificial death _____ God’s justice.

God made Him who had no sin to be sin for us, so that in Him we might become the righteousness of God. Corinthians 5:21

2. It opened up a pathway to God whereby we can receive _____ and _____.

Let us then approach the throne of grace with confidence, so that we may receive mercy and find grace to help us in our time of need. Hebrews 4:16

3. It means our _____ are not _____.

He forgave us all our sins...He took it away, nailing it to the cross. And having disarmed the powers and authorities, He made a public spectacle of them, triumphing over them by the cross. Colossians 2:13-15
